

Listening

|                                                 |                                            |
|-------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|
| Total sample:                            | 1200 workers living in large cities |
| Information organized in a:              | histogram                           |
| Mean (1995):                             | 28 minutes                          |
| Distribution:                            | Skewed to the right                 |
| Mode (2010):                             | 30 minutes                          |
| Median:                                  | 25 minutes                          |
| What happened to the standard deviation? | Decreased                           |

Vocabulary exercise A

14
8
1
9
10
16
11
3
12
15
5
13
2
7
4
6

Vocabulary exercise B

1. range
2. roughly
3. gather
4. findings
5. increase
6. decline
7. biased
8. trends
9. data collection tools

10. research methods
11. algorithms
12. whole number
13. equation

Simple present.

1. enjoy,
2. are,
3. uses,
4. does not give,
5. work,
6. does not finish,
7. likes,
8. does not study,
9. need,
10. does not contribute,
11. shares

Pronouns.

1. Maria collected survey answers from 50 students, and she explained the results to the professor, who found her graphs very clear.
2. David analyzed the data from last month, but the teacher did not trust his calculations with some numbers.
3. The students completed a questionnaire about their study habits, and the professor collected the answers to compare them with last year's results.
4. This morning Mrs. Robinson gave us the result of our probability test.
5. Ana noticed some mistakes in the table, so she didn't submit it.

Present Continuous.

1. am sitting,
2. are studying,
3. is explaining,
4. is not using,
5. is showing

Question Formation.

1. Who is writing the report?
2. What time does the meeting start?
3. Where do you meet?

G. Writing.

1. The students calculate mean and median in class.
2. The bar graph showed the results.
3. A random sample is important in statistics.
4. Researchers sometimes collect large datasets.

READING.

- Girls and Black families express more awareness about social media and its impact than other populations. → Paragraph 3
- Many teens recognize excessive screen time, but most maintain current usage levels. → Paragraph 6
- Many teens think social media helps social life and creativity, but it can also cause stress. → Paragraph 4
- Parents are more comfortable than teens discussing mental health issues. → Paragraph 5
- Parents show greater concern for teen mental health than teens themselves. → Paragraph 2